FAIRMOUNT COLLEGE NOTES.

Monday evening the citizens of this section met at the Fairmount church and organized the Fairmount Improvement society. The following officers were elected: G. S. Wilson, president; Dr. G. F. Lewis, vice president; W. H. Isely, secretary; W. H. Norton, treasurer. The president of the association appointed the following committees: Street-Norton, Isely, Woodcock, Aley and Dowling; tree planting-Ehls, W. A. Bosworth, Garrett, Mrs. Bab and Miss Mary B. Dimond; sanitation-Dr. G. F. Lewis, Barkow and Collier; taxation-Routel, McGinnis, Morrison, Loudenslager and Clark; invitation-Buck, McGinnis and A. H. Bosworth.

Frank Van Buskirk, '02, entertained some of his college mates Saturday evening.

Saturday afternoon Merrill N. Isely entertained a party of friends.

The senior class in Economics have spent the past week in the study of the trust problem.

The senior preparatory class have begun the study of systematic Botany.

Thursday being a holiday a number of the students led by Robert Lewis spent the day on the Big River shooting "sprigs" and seal.

Sorority will soon have a sufficient fund to finish a room in the main building suitable for the needs of this efficient society.

The library has received an accession of twenty volumes during the past week.

At their regular meeting Monday evening the Websters elected officers. They chose Judson Osborn for president; Myron Boyle, vice president; Chester Lockwood, secretary; Overton Glenn, treasurer; G. H. Russell, sergeant-at-arms; C. C. Isely, reporter. Next Monday evening members of the society will present an interesting athletic program.

The Martha Washington tea given Thursday evening by Sorority and the Ladies Library club was well attended. The proceeds, which amounted to about $15, will go to the fitting up of Sorority's room.

The evening was pleasantly spent in music and conversation. The refreshments were served from booths prettily decorated in national colors, and presided over by Sorority young ladies dressed in colonial costumes. The quaint costumes of the guests gave a real colonial aspect to the college chapel where the entertainment was held.

The Sorority young ladies are working enthusiastically in behalf of the Sorority room and deserve liberal patronage in their series of enjoyable entertainments.

Next Friday night Miss Millson, who is teacher of elocution at Fairmount, will give a recital. The Fairmount chorus, which is under the leadership of Prof. Marshall, will sing, and the evening will be an enjoyable one, as the chorus and elocution classes are splendid entertainers. The proceeds will go to furnish Sorority hall.

Oscar Hoop and Carrie Burton will spend Sunday and Monday in their respective homes in Utah.

FRIENDS' UNIVERSITY NOTES.

The Saturday Evening Post is a late addition to the library of Friends' University.

Mr. Fay, an alumnus of Kansas University, visited Miss Arnett Tuesday.

Professor Jay's class in surveying have been doing practice work. They surveyed the campus one day this week.

Miss Amy Foulk is assisting in the kindergarten department.

An aunt of Miss Inez White, who is studying here at this place, is Mr. Henry and Clement Parker were favored this week by a visit from their sister, Miss Mamie, of Colwich, Kan.

Tuesday morning John Howard received a telegram stating that his father was dying. He took the morning train for Friends, O. T., his former home.

The students and faculty greatly appreciate the beautiful picture of Frances Willard, recently sent as a present from the Friends at Haviland, Kan.

Thursday morning immediately after chapel hour all repaired to the front steps and tried to look wise while Mr. Kirby took three snap shots of the students and university building.

The Y. M. C. A. held a business meeting during the noon hour Tuesday, at which they received their names of nineteen boys in membership.

Saturday evening, February 18, the Misses Burleigh entertained the students of the university in a very pleasing manner.

Quite a number of visitors were here this week, among them the Misses McDaniell, Theobald and Virgil Cox of Rose Hill, Mr. Lessendahl, Miss Florence Couch and Fern Ransom, a last year's graduate of F. U.

President Stanley left Friday evening to deliver a short course of lectures. Today he will dedicate the new Glen Elder Friends church, and this evening speak to the young people of that place.

During this week, excepting Monday, chapel exercises have been conducted by the members of the Y. M. and the Y. W. C. A. The services were all of a religious and evangelistic character. President Stanley had charge of the hour Friday morning. He spoke about the importance of Bible study and secret prayer. The Bible study work of the two Christian associations was also presented.

At a recent meeting of the athletic association the following officers were elected: Eben Fyle, captain baseball; George Davidson, manager basketball; Alice Mack, captain basketball; Besse Means, manager basketball; Howard Woodard, captain football; Frank Waldeck, manager football; Lloyd Pierce, captain tennis; Harry Brown, manager tennis; Avery Wright, captain track team.

The school of pedagogy of the Friends' university offers during the last ten weeks of the present term special review needs of teachers wishing to better fit themselves for work. Review classes will be obtained in a number of the common branches and in Civics, English Composition and Classic Study, Physical Geography, Nature Study, General History, Bookkeeping, Methods and Management, and Psychology as applied to the science of teaching. Regular preparatory and college classes are continued, and teachers who are thoroughly prepared can enter any of these without extra expense. The Model Kindergarten Training School affords an opportunity for the study of the latest and most approved methods of instruction of child mind. A most excellent opportunity is thus offered for a thorough, practical study of educational problems and processes, and the teachers of southern Kansas who are aspiring to better prepare themselves to make credits on a state certificate should avail themselves of this opportunity by attending the Friends' university.

LEWIS ACADEMY NOTES.

Professor Scott had the pleasure of entertaining an old college friend, Rev. J. K. Ewart of Newton, Tuesday. The two had a most enjoyable time recalling old times and friends of their college days. Miss Madie Boyer of Valley Center, a former student, visited at the school Wednesday.

Miss Nellie Little returned to school last week, after a long absence, caused by sickness.

Miss Lillian De Talente went to her home at Waterview Friday evening, to spend a few days.

Mrs. Silsby, Miss Viola Bull and Mr. Holcomb were visitors at Rhetoricals Thursday morning.

Miss Hamilton, a graduate of the School of Domestic Science at Worcester, Mass., has been working in the laboratory during the past week, testing food stuffs.

Dr. Slutz of the First M. E. church, has donated his services as a lecturer to the Athletic association, as a means of increasing the gymnasium fund. The date of the lecture has not been determined yet.

A crowd of merry students from the Academy went to Peck Friday evening to attend a party in that vicinity. Those in the number were: Misses Alice De Talente, Ida Blythe, Dora Roll, Nora Noel and Lizzie Duncan, and Messrs. George Buck, Edgar Dye, Robert Houston, William Noel and Fred Roll.

A glee club has been formed by some of the young men in the school and with the assistance of Miss Eban, who is always ready to help in the right place, they will soon be prepared for work before the public. This club will receive the hearty encouragement of all in the school. Those composing the club are: Charles Garver, Mr. Shipman, Lawrence Hare and W. Small.

Lewis Academy is always proud of its graduates, but it has an especial pride in those who, after leaving its walls, have entered upon larger fields of work or, having acquired a broader culture in some particular line of art, are ever ready to show their interest in the school by giving to it some service which, as the result of long-continued effort and careful training, may give an inspiration to the students. An instance of this occurred Thursday morning when Miss Mable Larimer, a member of the class of '90, sang so charmingly for the school. Her selection was Vannah's exquisite "Lullaby," which is admirably adapted to her mellow contralto voice. The school crowded her with cheering.

Reports of the progress of two former students of the Academy were received recently, which are of much interest to their friends here. One was of Dean Foster, '91. Mr. Foster graduated last year from Yale Medical college, and is at present taking the hospital course in the completion of this course, which will be this year, he will go to Vienna, Austria, to finish his medical studies. The other was of Mr. Charles Ruggles, who has the entire management of the Brown & Ketchum Structural and Ornamental Iron and Steel works of New York City. Mr. Ruggles writes that his firm cleared $90,000 last year and expects to clear over $100,000 this year.
